

“Of course, I did – and just like you,
he had a granddad too!
There’s a great long line of granddads
that leads all the way to you.”

Now every granddad’s different,
in shape and size and name.
Look around and you will see
no two are quite the same.”

"My grandad's an INVENTOR.
He's made me lots of things:
like an automatic paintbrush,

and popcorn-powered wings!

“My grandad is a FISHERMAN.
He tells me salty tales . . .
of sea monsters and mermaids,
megalodons and whales.”
