

ISADORA MOON

BROKEN WAND

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

... just as Dad stepped through. He was ready for bed (he's a vampire, after all).

As he stretched ... Isadora's magic turned him green!

'Nooo!' wailed Dad, looking at his hands. 'Is my face green too?' Oscar tried to stifle a chuckle.

'I'm afraid so,' said Isadora and she told him everything that had happened.

'Oh dear,' said Dad, 'that's not good.'

'Pleeease can we go to the wand repair tree in the forest?' begged Isadora.

They flew to the forest and arrived in front of a little pink door set into a tree trunk. Dad hid behind a tree. He didn't want anyone to see his green face, and he needed a quick cat-nap!

Isadora knocked on the door ...

... and it was opened by a tiny fairy with blue hair.

'Look, Pink Rabbit, it's Mignonette!' squealed Isadora.

'Here for all your wand-repair needs,' announced Mignonette.

