

The boy That got to turn into a Super hero.

by Samuel

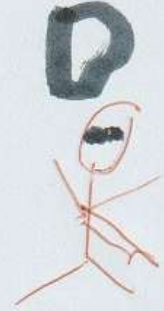

He wanted to be a Super hero but his Mum said NO!!

He thought and thought....

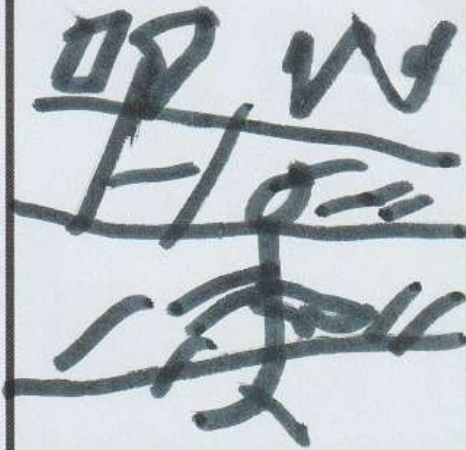

Until he had an idea!

He ran to the shop

and bought a potion

He ran home

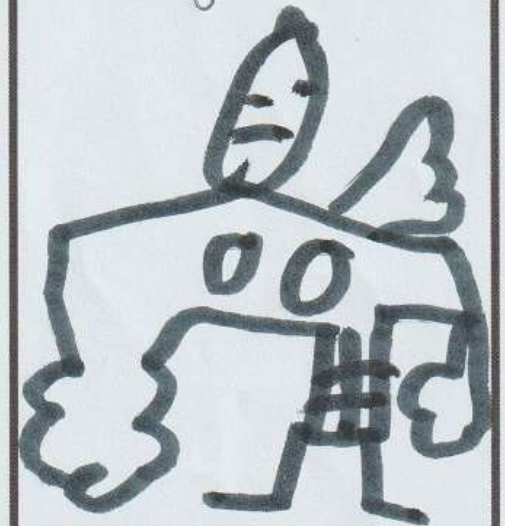

He began to like the potion

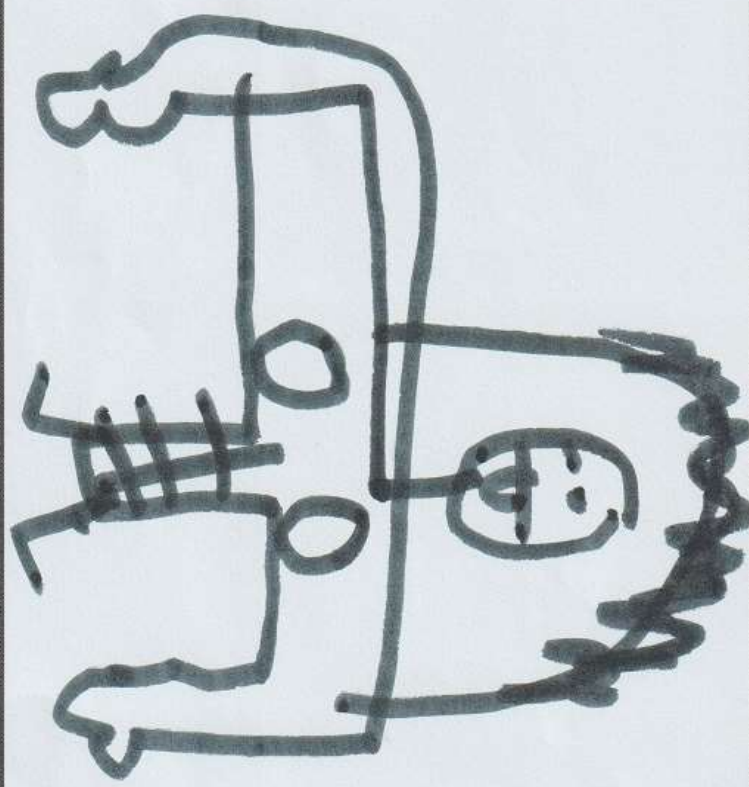

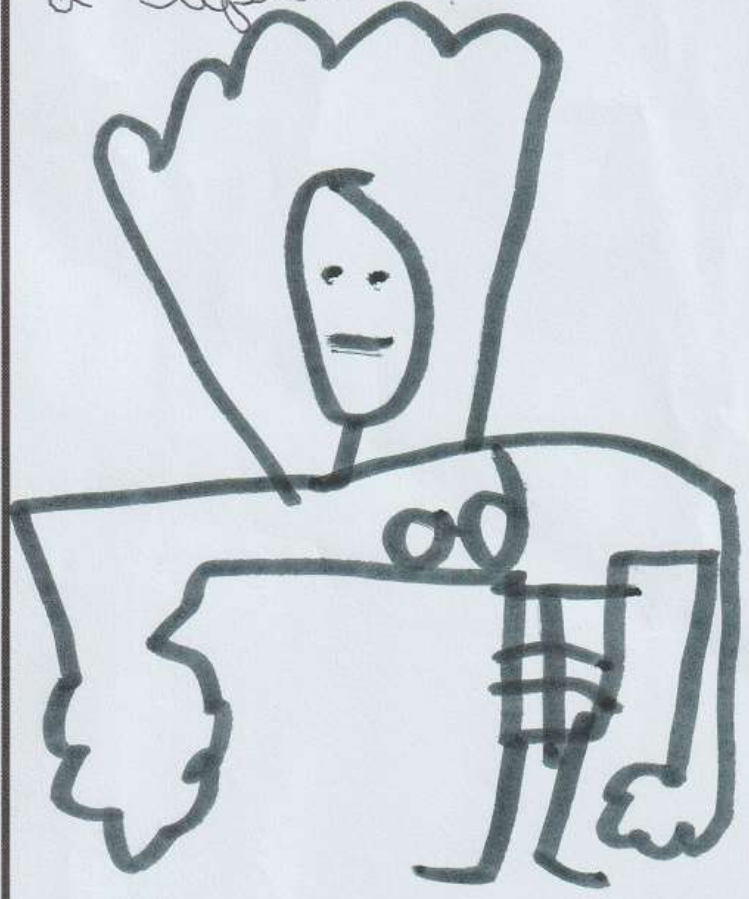

He drank the potion to the bottom!

And he became a superhero

He started to enjoy being a superhero!

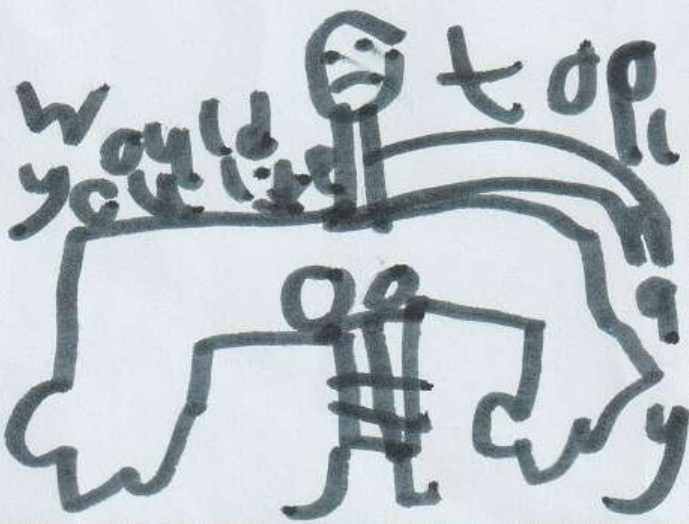

He goes up into the sky and flies

As a superhero he looked buff

He went to an old man and asked him: Can you play with me?

The old man said no

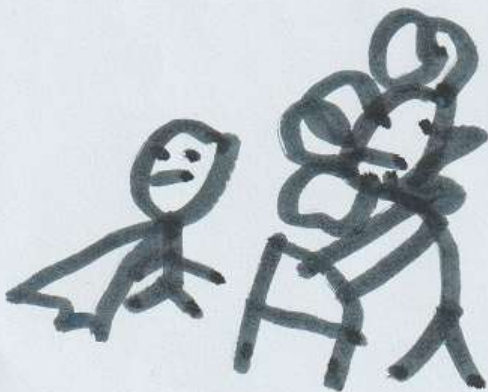

He had an idea

He picked up the old man and the potion started to fade!

He became a little boy again

Don't say Kazam again, against this kid!

The End!
