

I have a big family – over one hundred sisters and a few little brothers live with me, plus our mum, the Queen!

The other babies and I start the day by cleaning all the wax cells in the nest. It's the first lesson we learn – to always keep our home neat and tidy.