

Your hair has to be in a bun to do ballet.
This is quite hard if you have recently cut your own hair.

Bobby pins sound friendly, but they actually hurt a lot.

First position is not the first position that you learn.

First you learn to be a snowflake.

It's kind of boring if you are a serious dancer like me.
Just go with it for now. Same with the scarves.
You won't be stuck with them forever, I promise.

Step-hop!
Step-hop!

That's how I remember what skipping is.

When your teacher says
'straight legs!'

that doesn't mean acting like a robot.
She will not find that funny.
