Sunday

This is me!

My real name is Dorothy Constance Mae Louise, but that's a bit of a mouthful so I just like to be called

Dot.

I might SEEM as if I have an ordinary sort of life. I live with my mum, the twins (my brother and sister Alf and Maisy) and my dog, McClusky...

and I go to Oakfield School.

BUT THAT'S NOT ALL... Me and McClusky and my best pal, Beans, have our very own super-secret, super-sleuthing detective agency: the JOIN THE DOTS DETECTIVES!

However murky the mystery or fiendishly puzzling the problem, we can ALWAYS piece together the clues and solve the case. It's like a really complicated join the dots puzzle: only at the end can you see the whole picture.

Here is my bedroom - check out the amazing chandelier Mum gave me!

This isn't just my bedroom, though,
OH NO. It's also the Join the Dots Detectives HQ, where I do all my best deductivising, head scratching and end-of-pencil chewing when I am on a case and studying the clues.

I keep all my treasures here too. LOTS of boxes, packed full to bursting with all my special things.

Mum says it drives her CRAZY that we all have TOO MUCH STUFF in our family.

Although one look at her collection
of unusual teapots

and it is clear that she has A LOT of stuff too.

The twins have their own weird collections...

and, when me and Mum move the furniture to do the hoovering, we discover that McClusky has been hoarding HIS “treasures” too, behind the sofa.

“So that’s where my knitting wool has got to!” says Mum.

McClusky's embarrassed face!
