When Dylan and his family moved to a new house lots of things were different.

Dylan didn't have to share a bedroom anymore.

They had a downstairs toilet . . .

. . . which meant Dylan could
FINALLY have a trampoline!
But, SOMETHING ELSE
was different too . . .

. . . so no more waiting for
Dad to get out of the shower!
They EVEN had a garden . . .

THIS house had a GHOST!

No one noticed the ghost at first . . .

. . . but it wasn't long before Dylan spotted him!

But the rest of the family did NOT like living with a ghost.

A ghost that had FORGOTTEN how to use doors . . .

. . . and DIDN'T need a lot of sleep!
It liked to put things in funny places.
Even Mr Whiskers wasn't keen!

They tried to ignore it,
but after the ghost
said hello to Granny,
there was no choice -
THE GHOST HAD TO GO!

So the grown-ups did everything they could think of to make the ghost leave:

They tried asking it NICELY.
They tried MAKING LOTS OF NOISE!
They EVEN tried to SCARE
it away!

"Can't we just make friends with the ghost?" Dylan asked.

"PEOPLE don't make friends with GHOSTS!" said Dad.

"We'll move all its old things out of the house – then maybe it will leave!"
