Meet
Class 2L.
These kids are excited.

Today's

SHOW AND TELL DAY and you're all invited!

Meet Mr Lumsden. He is their teacher,
A giant moustache his most prominent feature.
"Remember," he says with a smile in his eyes,

"The child that impresses me most wins a prize."

A hush fills the classroom.

It's time to begin.

"Adam, you're first.

Show us what you've brought in."

"Well," says the boy,

"I have treasure, indeed.

A small piece of sunshine,
this sunflower seed."

"A sunflower seed?
That's so BORING!"

shouts Betty.

"I've got a whole tin of bright blue spaghetti."

"I think you'll agree that mine beats yours, hands down.

That seed is so tiny.

And boring. And brown."

"Blue pasta?" says Charlie.

"I guess it's okay.

But my hat's the best thing that you'll see today."

"Nonsense!" says Darcy.
"My gold violins
Are far more impressive!"

And so it begins...
